Division 3320: Quiz Bowl Competition

Class

- 2001 Grades 6-8
2002 Grades 9-12

1. The coaches' meeting starts at 8:00 am with the competition scheduled to begin at 8:15 am both days. Teams will be paired at random and competition times will be assigned after check-in. The size of the school will not be a consideration in the draw for pairings. No late check-ins will be allowed.
2. Schools may enter any number of teams. Each team must have its own sponsor. The sponsor(s) of the additional team(s) can be a parent or another teacher. Sponsors must attend the rules meeting at check-in and must stay with the students throughout the competition or the team will be disqualified.
3. Teams will consist of exactly four students: a captain and three members. Alternate players (maximum of 2) are allowed, but no substitutions may be made during a match. Alternate players may enter play only at the beginning of a new match. The players on each team do not need to be from the same school, but each student may be a member of only one team.
4. The moderator will read the question and recognize the team that will answer the question. A scorekeeper, timekeeper, and tournament judge will also be present.
5. The State Fair Quiz Bowl will consist of round-robin play. Round-robin schedules will be provided after all teams have checked in.
6. Each game will consist of 30 questions (total toss-up and bonus) unless the game time limit is reached. In the event of a tie at the end of a round, a toss-up question will be used as a tiebreaker. The first team to correctly answer a tiebreaker toss-up question will win the game.
7. Two types of questions are used during a match: toss-up and bonus. Points are scored by correctly answering a question. A correct answer to a toss-up question is worth 10 points and a correct answer to a bonus question is worth 5 points.
8. After the toss-up question is given, 10 seconds will be allowed for any team to respond. To answer a toss-up question, a player must be the first to signal by pushing his/her signal switch of the electronic control system. There may not be any conferring among team members during a toss-up question response. If there is a conferring, the team will be disqualified from that question.
9. The toss-up process consists of four (4) parts: the question, the signal, the recognition of the player by the moderator, and the answer. If a player answers without either of the two middle parts, the answer is treated as an incorrect answer. The player must wait until he/she is acknowledged by the moderator before answering.
10. A team member giving a correct toss-up answer entitles the team to a bonus question. The team members have 20 seconds to confer on bonus questions before the answer is given. The answers to bonus questions must be given by the team captain. Answers from other team members will not be acknowledged by the moderator unless the team captain specifically requests that another team member be allowed to answer.
11. When a player gives an incorrect answer to a toss-up question and the question has not been completely read, the question will be read again in its entirety and the other team will have 10 seconds to answer by the normal sequence of signaling, being recognized, and answering. If neither team gives the correct answer, the next question will be read.
12. No calculators or resource material may be used during the competition. Paper and pencils will be provided. The reader will tell students which questions will allow the use of pencil and paper.
13. Decisions of the tournament judge will be final. The official declaration of the outcome of the match shall be irrevocable. As in any contest, a match shall not be replayed – even if the outcome could have been altered by judgment errors.
14. If a team feels that a challenge is necessary, the team captain is the only one who may make the challenge and must make the challenge at the time of the answer (before the next question is given). Make certain that all challenges are legitimate as each challenge lengthens the day. There shall be no questions raised by anyone except the team captain, moderator, or officials. The decision of the judge will be final.
15. Violations of the rules (such as consulting after pressing the signal button, or blurting out an answer before being recognized) will disqualify a team on that question and
 - On the toss-up question the other team will be allowed to answer the question for the full point value
 - On the bonus questions, no points will be awarded.
16. In the case of equipment malfunction, it shall be the judges' discretion to modify the timing and/or signaling.
17. The tournament schedule, format, and rules are subject to change. All changes will be announced.

Division 3323: Science Display Competition

Class

2301	Grades K-5
2302	Grades 6-8
2303	Grades 9-12

1. Students may enter either a traditional science display or a science invention. Both entries must be entered on a tri-fold display board showing what was done. Note that the invention must be a scientific invention.
2. Traditional projects will be judged on the student's ability to utilize and show inquisitiveness, experimentation, and interpretation of results. Projects should formulate an idea, and show investigative research, experimentation, and data gathered. The results of the research should be displayed. Clarity is a must and originality is a plus. Make certain that the project is the work of the entrant and is age appropriate. Include and label the hypothesis, procedure, data, and conclusion. Also, list research sources if you have any.
3. A student-built apparatus or invention must include evidence of research, how the idea was formulated, detailed plans and sketches for the invention, and what problem the invention will help solve.
4. In both types of projects please include the following:
 - State how you thought of the project.
 - If operational, include instructions.
 - Mention all the people who assisted and their roles.
 - Label the project with the student's name, grade, and school on the front of the project
5. Different rubrics will be used for judging each type of project; however, a project following the steps of scientific research and an invention will neither have any advantage over the other in judging.
6. Each student may enter only one individual project and one "partner" project.
7. Projects must not occupy an area larger than 3 ft tall x 2 ½ ft wide x 1 ½ ft deep. Projects can be smaller than the maximum size.
8. Whatever is displayed when the project is set up for judging should be able to remain throughout the duration of the fair. Example 1: Do not include any perishable food items. If the project involves a concept such as the growth of mold, show the process with photos. Example 2: Do not bring any valuable items that might get broken or stolen. Instead, show with photos. Example 3: Do not bring any liquids in open containers that could tip over and make a mess.
9. Projects are to be the work of the student. Parents or teachers of younger students can help with typing and preparing a tri-fold display, but the display should then include a statement of what help the student received. Typing is not necessary for the display. It is perfectly acceptable for younger students to print the information by hand.

Division 3324: Group Service Project Competition

Class

2401	Grades K-8
2402	Grades 9-12

1. If members of a group fall into more than one age division, the project will be judged in the age division of the oldest member of the group.
2. Entries should be presented on a 3-dimensional standard science display board.
3. The entry should focus on some project the group did to meet a community's needs. The project must be self-initiated and not designed for the purpose of fulfilling requirements for an award.
4. State how many hours of this project were used to meet your school's community service requirements if any.
5. State who was involved with the project. Group projects should list all team members as well as an adult sponsor(s). For example, if a parent provided transportation or constructed something for the project, say so. If friends helped, tell how many helped and how much time they contributed. Having help does not diminish the value of the project, but rather gives the judge a clearer picture of the scope of the project.
6. Display should include:
 - At least one photo of the project, more are preferred.
 - Newspaper clippings if your project had news coverage.
 - Item made if your project involved making something.

- Answers to the following questions (either in a typewritten description or displayed separately on the board)
 - Where did you get the idea for the project?
 - When do you start it?
 - Has the project been concluded or is it ongoing?
 - What need was met in your community?
 - What was your goal in doing your project?
 - What was your impact? For example, if you collected items, how many did you collect? If you raised money, how much did you raise? If you taught something, how many people did you teach?
 - How many people were reached by your project?
 - What was your time commitment? For example, the number of hours you spent taking nursing home residents for walks or collecting and delivering DVDs for children’s hospitals.

Hole Punching Instructions

Because much of the poster board currently available is rather flimsy holes need to be punched further in than in the corners to keep the poster from curving in in the center while hanging on display.

Size 22"x28" and 22"x14" holes should be 4" from the left and right sides approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ " from the top and bottom. Both top holes must be the same distance from the top edge of the poster board for the poster to hang straight.

Size 28"x22" holes should be 7" from the left and right sides and approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ " from the top and bottom.

Size 14"x22" holes should be 2" from the left and right sides and approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ " from the top and bottom.
